

My name is Erin Friel, and I am the new Financial Coordinator for the Conservation District. I have a background in fiscal management, and have worked in state government, private sector, and non-profit. I have an associate degree in Business Administration and bring to the table common sense and a great attitude! In my spare time, I enjoy reading, watching hockey, playing with my pup Remi, and love being a grandma.